Dj Sugashane

Growing up in Southern California at the dawn of the Hip Hop era DJ SugaShane found himself embracing this new culture and all it had to offer. He devoted most of his spare time honing his skills as a B-Boy. From breaking to graffiti art it all became his passion.

After discovering his love for music at an early age DJ SugaShane quickly found himself making the transition to DJ. Together with a group of friends Shane started DJing school dances and private parties with equipment they all pitched in to purchase. Slowly they started gaining popularity as local DJ's and spread out to other area schools and guest spots at local nightclubs. After moving from the west coast to New England during his Junior year of high school it became evident that DJing was something he couldn't leave behind. Using rented equipment he began booking local gigs and saving the profit to buy his own. Shane also landed a Hip Hop radio show on the high schools radio station. After High school Shane landed his first paying gig at a nightclub his cousin opened, from there he was recruited to the local hot spot Champions where he held residency for 8 years. It was there that he gained some local popularity as people traveled from all over Maine each and every Wednesday night.

As his reputation grew, so did the demand for bookings. Soon clubs in the Portland area were recruiting him, causing him to migrate to the southern part of the state. By the late 90's he had held residency in almost every major city in the state. Eventually his bookings took him into New Hampshire where he decided to make his home. Along with JAMN 94.5 he helped put Inferno Nightclub on the map pulling in crowds upwards of 600 people weekly. From there Shane made the move to Plum Crazy, arguably the hottest nightclub to EVER hit New Hampshire. Here he held residency, as well as title of Assistant General Manager for 3 years. Together with the club owner Sanford Wallace and new found friends and co-workers DJ Biggie (General Manager)& DJ Pez (resident DJ) they had New Hampshire in the palm of their hands. The pinnacle of Shanes career came in the form of a summer spent DJing in Las Vegas at OPM in Caesars Palace. "Nothing compares to the Las Vegas lifestyle....I could really get used to it out there..." Currently SugaShane holds residencies at The Gaslight, Portsmouth, NH, Club 313, Manchester, NH, Club Electra, West Lebanon, NH and Tabu, Saugus, MA, Making a career out of DJing he's done everything from school dances to weddings & private parties. He even found himself dabbling in the underground Rave scene in the late 90's, early 2000's. Along the way he's also opened up for such hip hop acts as De La Soul, A Tribe Called Quest, Run DMC, Sugar Hill Gang & Grandmaster Melle Mel.

Today Shane continues to give his dance floor what it's looking for. With his unique style of mixing and ability to read the crowd DJ SugaShane has taken the scene by storm, always keeping the dance floor jumping and leaving them wanting more. From the hottest tracks out to a lesson in Hip Hop 101 to disco & mash-ups you NEVER know what you might get with SugaShane at the helm but rest assured, he'll keep you moving!!! Looking forward to the future Shane looks to take his career to the next level, he plans to continue booking clubs across the country and gain more and more exposure along the way. Currently he and DJ Biggie work on producing their "Drama Squad" Mix CD's....bringing a unique mix of the hottest club bangaz, remixes and blends along with some old school classics, a sneak peek into what you'd hear on their dance floors on any given night.

Be sure to keep an eye out.....you never know when SuqaShane may be coming to a club near you.

Dj Eric G

THE DJ STORY DJ Eric G began his DJ career in 1989 initially as a hobby, when someone informed him that he could actually make money doing something he enjoyed. His first ever gig was a New Years Eve gig at the Woodshed Lounge at the Howard Johnson restaurant in Springfield, VT after the scheduled entertainment cancelled due to the weather. He played music via a guitar amp, a 16 channel band mixer, and two dual cassette decks. After that he decided to try and get himself the area High School gigs by undercutting the competition, which worked and he formed his DJ business then call Digital Bass Sound and Light show. At some point Eric hooked up with Nightclub and Entertainment management legend Bill Henne, and landed his first real Nightclub gig at what was called Moguls nightclub. From there Eric's skills blossomed and the evolution of the CD player happened.. He then started playing dance music in what had always been a Rock and Roll club. Well, it caught on & spawned a new night called the Thursday Night Grind at the new Destiny Nightclub. It was so successful that they eventually switched the Saturday night format to dance music as well and the Eric G legacy began. Today Eric is the resident DJ at Electra Nightclub in Lebanon, NH and Manchester, NH on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and plays all over the world at different Clubs, raves, and parties.

Dj Big Pez

Dj Big Pez has been a professional dj for over 15 years. His exposure to the dj culture came in his early teens when he would sneak up to his older brother's bedroom in the attic. That's where his older brother kept his 2 turntables, mixer, and all the latest and hottest music on vinyl. His brother was a successful dj in the NJ nightclubs spinning house, hiphop, and freestyle music. Pez would spend countless hours perfecting his mixing skills and learning the art of djing. Pez's dj style covers a wide range of influences from Funkmaster Flex and Kid Capri to the Crooklyn Clan and the even the late DJ AM. His nightclub style touches everything from the hottest hiphop to deep dancehall reggae to classic party anthems, house music, mashups and only the best Top 40. Pez says, "It's all about timing. If a track is hot and I know it's gonna move the crowd, then I'm gonna set it up 2 or 3 songs ahead of time". This timing and non-stop flow is what keeps people lining the streets to get into a venue that Pez is spinning.

While Pez was in college (on a football scholarship) he would spin at all the after parties and turn the crowds out at the local bars. Throughout all this time, djing was just a hobby for Pez. In 1996, Pez befriended another young local aspiring dj named "Biggie" at one of the college football parties. Soon after, he started working at Portsmouth's legendary Club Spin. Pez's reputation as a "crowd rocker" could not be disputed. This reputation has led to numerous residencies and guest spots over the years. Pez has rocked the 1's and 2's in such seacoast nightclubs as the aforementioned Club Spin, Bananas Bar and Grill, Portsmouth Gas Light, Club Plum Crazy, Inferno, Club 360, Mojitos, Stacey Jane's, The Palms, and Jeremiah's. He has also done guest dj spots in New York City, Boston, Las Vegas, Portland, California, Philadelphia, and New Jersey. Currently, Dj Big Pez is the Friday night resident at Rj's Bar and Grill in Dover, NH. On Saturday nights you can catch Big Pez on rotation in Boston's biggest nightclubs such as Club Pearl in the Roxy or Whiskey Park. He can also be heard at Club Electra in Lebanon, NH or The Packing House in Lyndonville, VT. Feel free to drop Big Pez a line at djpez34@yahoo.com.

DeToto

DeToto is a remix artist residing in Ohio and is known for his crazy, hot party breaks, DJ "Piss Breaks" and well-crafted mashups and transitions in rotation on various radio mixshows (recently XM 21 - Club Kiss) and clubs spun by well-known DJs worldwide. He has been producing remixes since 2001 and currently produces remixes for the Full Tilt Remix label (www.fulltiltremix.com) and Crooklyn Clan's "Crack4DJs" remix site (www.crack4Djs.net/detoto).

DeToto also produces custom mixes for dance/cheer competition teams, fitness competitions, fitness classes, and corporate events.

Dj Thunder

With an odd sense of humor an interesting outlook on life and no ties to drinking and such Dj Thunder frequently became somewhat outcast amongst his peers. then 1 day he was bitten by a radioactive turntable, granting him superhuman ...stuff. knowing that with great power comes great f-in responsibility he decided to use his newfound powers for the betterment of mankind, fighting the tyrannies of evil music everywhere.

he began his fight performing in clubs as the founder of the group brothas abstrakt; a singing and dancing troop using hip hop, r and b and raggae as their weapons. they performed all over southern maine and participated in many programs for kids and teens.

as his powers grew he began djing at night clubs playing all over new england. he has had lengthy residencies in several clubs and opened for names like dj skribbles, badboy bill, richard humpty vission, frankie bones, dj icedy, uberzone, the bassbin twins and venom to name a few.

soon thunder joined the band miravie taking the place of dj mayonaise (whom he looked up to as a mentor and inspiration). the band played an interesting amalgamation of rock, hip hop, raggae, funk and ska and released a cd which thunder produced 2 tracks for. miravie played alongside eminem, mxpx and good charlotte.

thunder helped create the 5 o'clock mixdown, a radio show on 95.9wred as dj and host. this was the 1st hip hop mix show to air on mainstream radio in the state of maine. thunder has played almost every nightclub, bar and school in southern maine and several in other states and can be currently seen as a resident at the industry nightclub and the lava lounge in the old port in portland,me.

"bring it wut! he right here"

Dj Punzo

As far back as he can remember Philip Punzo (DJ Punzo) always had the desire to be a DJ. The name Punzo is his family's last name, making it original. When he was 15, Punzo would spend his after school hours mixing records on his fathers turntables, In having such a good ear for music, he learned very quickly and with stride. Once he started to understand the basics, he would record his sessions on tapes, making them the "talk" of his friends and family. Practicing each day on the DJ decks gave him the confidence & experience he needed to be molded into an experienced and unstoppable DJ.

As the years passed he got a first hand look at what a DJ's job really consisted of. After helping his father and brother at night clubs, plus one of the biggest and only teen dance in Philly that ever existed at the time, "The Bocci Club", Established in the year 2000. Philly kids would wait on a Friday night to come & party. Every night was over packed with 500 to 700 people with lines wrapped around the corner. In 2002, DJ Punzo once again started showing his skills at dances and nightclubs, but this time he was solo, but he wasn't stopping there. Dj Punzo went on to start his own remix service called "Digitraxx Remix" which is now all over the Internet. Along with other DJs Punzo would create DJ friendly remixes using original songs and issue them to other DJ's. What started out as a fun idea caused major publicity online and around the world.

In 2006, DJ Punzo joined Drama Squad DJ's. Drama Squad is an entertainment company featuring almost a dozen DJs spinning the hottest dance blends, each with his own mix of today's rap and hip-hop, R&B, reggae and reggaeton. They then created a Remix Store called 'Drama Mix'. DJ Punzo has created many mixes for this online store. To date his two most popular mixes to be played around the world, at major nights clubs and on major radio and satellite stations is his mash-up of Timbaland's The Way I Are and Alice Deejay's Better Off Alone, (which Punzo named "Better Off The Way You Are") and DJ Punzo's Gnor Mix of Danity Kane's song Damaged. Punzo also sends his remixes to DJ Richie from Q102 to play on the station. That same year, Punzo then started to work with Richie Rich and late night host Rocco from Q102. Not only did he have his remixes play over the radio but he also became a resident at some major clubs in Philly such as Club 27, The Roxxy/Bamboo Bar, Benny The Bums, just to name a few.

In 2007, He joined another remix service called "Select Mix/Hot Tracks", a major remix label bought by many DJ's around the world. That same year, Rocco asked DJ Punzo to work with him and create a dance show called "Nocturnal USA". Every Friday night, just as the clubs were emptying out, Rocco & DJ Punzo would pump the airwaves with High Energy Beats of Dance, Electro, House, And Techno music. DJ Punzo and Rocco Wowed listeners in the Philadelphia area. It was the first time a station was playing Dance Music at that time slot ever since Robbie Tronco was on the station. The show brought Dance music back to Philly and got alot of listeners which made the show grow rapidly.

In 2008-2009, DJ Punzo's remixes are featured on Crooklyn Clan Vault, Crack 4 DJ's, Rated H and YourRemix. He Is Also featured on two Internet radio stations which DJ Punzo does Weekly Mixshows on such as "Hitz Radio" and The Internets #1 Dance Channel "Radio Danz" which is now a dance station on I-Tunes Radio. Even though DJ Punzo has had many experience with music and alot of exposure, he is still trying to get his name out there more, and do what he loves.

Join DJ Punzo In The Mix Every Saturday Night @ 10PM EST. on Radio Danz (www.radiodanz.com) Playing The Best of Dance, House, Progressive House & Trance Around the World.

Dj MIC-E-LUV

I have always had a love for music since I was really young, and dreamed of the day that I could become a DJ. In 1999 I got the opportunity to go and DJ a middle school dance with a friend of mine that had a DJ service. I knew I had to do more DJ work from then on. That same year, I met DJ Eric G and he took me under his wing to show me the tricks and how he beat mixes. My favorite music to spin is hip-hop, but I am able to spin it all. If you don't have a love for music, and a passion for what you do, you're not going to make it in the DJ world. My first residency was, and still is at Electra Nightclub in West Lebanon NH in 2001. My DJ career has increased tremendously since then with numerous clubs, bars, parties, school events, colleges and even weddings gigs. I still do a large number of mobile jobs every year as well as the club work.

CLUBS AND BARS I HAVE DJED AT:

- » Electra Nightclub, West Lebanon NH & Manchester NH
- » Millennium Nightclub, Keene NH
- » Bentley's, Woodstock VT
- » The Packing House, Lyndonville VT
- » The Royal Flush, Springfield VT
- » The Silo, Mt. Snow VT
- » Christopher's, Ludlow VT

DJ Jonny P

It's never enough. With this attitude about life Jonny P set out to become a DJ. He started his career at the age of twelve. With no real clue about where to start his parents started him off with a couple Gemini cd players and a 2 channel mixer. His first gig, a graded school dance that ended early because of equipment failure only motivated Jonny to push forward to succeed in his new found goal in life. By the end of his 8th grade year Jonny was DJ'ing almost every school dance in the area. By the time high school came around it was time to start taking his ambitions outside of the North East Kingdom and start doing shows in NH. Jonny's first club gig was at the age of 16 when Eric G the resident DJ at Electra Nightclub in West Lebanon NH invited Jonny to spin for an hour at the under 21 velocity club night. After that night Jonny realized that the club industry was a completely different game than the mobile DJ'ing business that he knows. Eric G took Jonny under his wing and showed him the fundamentals of beat mixing and music selection . Mixing is something that did not come naturally and Jonny new that he would have to step up and spend every free moment he had to ever achieve the success that he would be satisfied with. Countless hours in a basement mixing music was what it took to take that step. Since those first Gemini cd players DJ Jonny P has performed all over New England and continues to strive to make an impact in the entertainment industry .

Be sure to keep your eyes open for Jonny P's Official MixTape soon to drop within the next few months.

Also check out Jonny P on Facebook and Myspace as well as twitter.

Dj Sin Diesel

Born and raised around music, this Detroit native is no stranger to making people dance. When in high-school he used to sneak out to hear the sounds of Detroit's famous House music, mixed with sounds of what is commonly known as Ghetto Techno. While living in California and frequently visiting Hollywood, Beverly Hills, and Las Vegas, the west coast scene gave birth to something that would end up creating a musical beast. Having never heard mash-ups before, the innovative sounds inspired Sin Diesel to become a DJ. After years of developing his craft and skills, this New Breed of Entertainer has hit the scene without looking back. With cities such as Dallas, Detroit, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and Columbus under his belt, Sin Diesel has managed to create a fan base that keeps coming back for more. Every time Sin Diesel steps up to the 1's and 2's he manages to successfully reinvent himself. Now with his mixes available through iTunes, Sin Diesel has expanded his network and fan base internationally. He is also a featured DJ on "The Buzz" and has been inducted into the Fetty Be Hall of Fame.

DJ Pauly D was born in Providence, Rhode Island on July 5th 1980. Pauly D began DJ'ing at the tender age 16, and soon realized he had a passion for music. This drive would shape and direct his career choice of DJ'ing. By the tender age 18 he became a regular DJ at local hot spots and private functions throughout Rhode Island.

Pauly's charismatic personality has the ability to control and please any crowd. This Italian-American DJ is definitely a "ladies-man", women have often packed the local night spots just to watch him spin. What he is able to do with his hands and two turntables has been described as "utterly incredible". Pauly quickly surpassed the capabilities of most local DJ's, and brings a powerful and special vibe to his music delivery. Fascinated by the crowd, he often feeds off its energy and strides to keep the dance floor moving.

Pauly also has a strong entrepreneurial spirit and thrives to be a true business man. He is interested in several aspects of the entertainment industry. In 2007, Pauly proudly joined forces with a friend and fellow local DJ and formed VIP-PROV. VIP-PROV is a promotional street team that works in and around the club scene.

Pauly is one his areas most famous and favorite DJ's, and is always high in demand. He is considered a true asset to any venue. He has appeared at many Providence hot night spots such as: Pearl, Red Room, Monet, Ultra, Elements, Fish Co, Prov, just to name a few.

Now that Pauly has completed MTV's Jersey Shore he has begun to book nationally. DJ Pauly D. will continue to improve on his craft and embrace several new opportunities' coming his way.
